Office Action Summary

DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claims 1-3 and 5-21 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In claim 1, part (b) in the definition of R3 (page 45, lines 11-12), there is no antecedent basis for "said first R3 ring" or "said second R3 ring". In claim 2, part (b) in the definition of R3 (page 49, line 7), there is no antecedent basis for "said R3 ring". Dependent claims fall herewith. Claim 2 ends with a semicolon, it is thus not clear if the claim is complete.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless -

(e) the invention was described in-

Art Unit: 1712

(1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effect under this subsection of a national application published under section 122(b) only if the international application designating the United States was published under Article 21(2)(a) of such treaty in the English language; or
(2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that a patent shall not be deemed filed in the United States for the purposes of this subsection based on the filing of an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a).

4. Claims 1-3 and 5-15 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by JP 2000-327675.

JP '675 teaches a photochromic composition which comprises spiro and oxo naphthopyran compounds of the present invention, which are used in similar polymer compositions (see whole document).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

5. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

6. Claims 1, 3 and 16-21 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over JP 2000-327675 in view of Van Gemert (5645767).

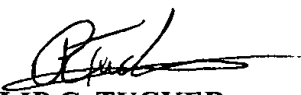

Art Unit: 1712

JP '675 teaches a photochromic composition which comprises spiro and oxo naphthopyran compounds of the present invention, which are used in similar polymer compositions (see whole document). JP '675 differs from the present invention in that the use of a second photochromic compound having an absorption maxima between 400 and 700 nm is not disclosed. Van Gemert teaches naphthopyran compounds which are isomers of the present compounds, and teaches the use of such compound in combination with other photochromic compounds to achieve an appropriate hue (column 12, lines 33-44). It would be obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to combine the compounds of JP '675, with a photochromic compound having an absorption maxima between 400 and 700 nm, given the teaching of Van Gemert that the combination of similar naphthopyrans and photochromic compounds, may be made to achieve an appropriate hue.

7. Claim 4 is allowable over the art of record.
